

BENEFIT EVENING for BENT ON LEARNING'S “ADOPT A SCHOOL” CAMPAIGN

The Shala is adopting the Children's Workshop, an elementary school in the East Village. As part of the Shala community, help us raise $20,000 to bring yoga to 250 inner city kids for one year.

WHEN

Friday, October 18th

6:30-7:30: vinyasa/restorative class
with Annie Piper, Barbara Verrochi, and Kristin Leigh

7:45-9:00: Music by Charlie Burnham, light snacks, beverage, and raffle

DONATE

suggested $50

WHERE

The Shala Union Square
815 Broadway, Second Floor

Charles Burnham is a singer and violinist who breathes life into his music. He has a unique, poetic and highly imaginative style that crosses genres, including bluegrass, delta punk, free jazz, blues, classical and chamber jazz. The passion and fire of Charlie Burnham's violin has graced the work of many: such as Cassandra Wilson, James Blood Ulmer, Steven Bernstein, Jai Uttal, Peter Apfelbaum and Henry Threadgrill.